

OPaL's PARC Receives the Prestigious NABL Accreditation

OPaL's Product Application & Research Centre (PARC) located at Dahej has received the prestigious NABL accreditation in accordance with ISO/IEC 17025: 2017 standard from National Accreditation Board for Testing and Calibration Laboratories (NABL), Constituent Board of Quality Council of India.

The certification scope is for 22 test properties as per different ISO and ASTM standards in the areas of Mechanical and Chemical testing. The test results are acceptable in 104 economies across the globe. NABL accreditation brings enhanced competency in testing results, that will further strengthen customer confidence in test certificate issued by the laboratory. With universal acceptability in the global market, it provides greater access for the products, in both domestic and international markets.
